White House.

Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Roosevelt, and Miss Ethel Roosevelt were among those who attended the Ascension Day services held in the grounds of the Cathedral Close, yesterday afternoon. After their return to the White House, Mrs. Roosevelt received informally on the south lawn. Tea was served out of doors.

Mrs. and Miss Roosevelt will go to Groton, Mass., on Friday, May 29, to be present at the commencement exercises of the Groton School, when Senator Lodge will address the students.

Miss Roosevelt will, as usual, pass the greater part of the summer with her grandmother, Mrs. Lee, at her home in Brookline, Mass.

Dinners.

Former Senator and Mrs. Henderson entertained at dinner last evening in honor of the Chinese minister, Sir Chen Tung-Liang-Cheng. Their guests were Postmaster General and Mrs. Payne, General and Mrs. Miles, the Assistant Secretary of State and Mrs. Loomis, former Secretary and Mrs. John W. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. William Elroy Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Henderson, Jr., Miss Wilson, Miss Deering, Miss Berry, and Colonel Biddle.

General and Mrs. Gillespie gave a dinner last evening in honor of their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Foster, of Buffalo. Those invited were General and Mrs. Merritt, Paymaster General and Mrs. Bates, Captain and Mrs. Beach, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Cotton Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hague.

Lawn Fete.

The fete for the benefit of the House of the Good Shepherd, which took place at the home of the Misses Riggs yesterday afternoon, attracted all the society people in town and besides being a successful success netted a handsome sum for the institution for which it was given.

Tea, cakes, ice cream and strawberries were served from tables on the lawn during the afternoon. Mrs. McKenna, Mrs. White, Mrs. Hoban, Sands, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Story, Mrs. Atwell, Madame Perez, Mrs. James Harbour, and Mrs. George C. Broome had charge of the refreshments. They were assisted by the Misses McKenna, the Misses Sheridan, the Misses Perkins, the Misses Colton, Miss Helen Cook, Miss Anne Phelps Brown, Miss Fisher, Miss Hume, Miss Errol Cuthbert Brown, and Miss Mattingly. Miss Marie Sands served lemonade from a table under a picturesque umbrella and the fortune telling of Mrs. Gielow and Miss Marie Sands furnished much amusement.

Weddings—Engagements.

An engagement of great interest in society was announced yesterday, that of Miss Josephine Johnson to Henry A. C. Taylor, whose daughter, Miss Harriet Taylor was married on Wednesday to Count Giuseppe della Gherardesca. Miss Johnson is a daughter of the late Heron A. Johnson, who died years ago, leaving his widow and daughters a handsome fortune. Miss Johnson is a most conspicuous figure in society.

Mr. Taylor is a son of the late Moses Taylor, a banker, who left a vast fortune to his children. His wife, born a Miss Fearing, died three years ago. Mr. Taylor has a residence in East Seventy-first Street, one of the most pretentious of the modern houses of New York, and a villa at Newport, in Annandale Road.

The wedding will take place at the Johnson villa, in Newport, where Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will pass the summer, about the middle of June.

Lieut. Charles Edward Hay, Company D, Twenty-fourth United States Infantry, and Miss Jane Roby were married.

HINTS FOR WASHINGTON HOUSEKEEPERS

The butchers in the local markets are feeling the effects of the warm weather, and are loudly bewailing the rapid decrease in their number of sales. As soon as summer is well under way, and there is no disputing the statement that Washington is now enjoying real summer weather, the market buyers purchase more vegetables, poultry, fish and the like, and pass by the butcher and his wares with a pleasant "Good morning," and the cheerful greeting that "it is too warm to eat meat."

Prices, however, have not changed on dressed meats. Vegetables, fruits, and eggs are bringing the same as yesterday.

Today's retail market prices follow:

VEGETABLES—Tomatoes, 12½ to 15¢ pound, Bermuda onions, 8¢ per box; spring onions, 5¢; string beans 25¢ ¼ peck; summer squash, 8¢ to 10¢; rhubarb, 5¢; asparagus, 25¢ to 35¢ per bunch; green asparagus, 10¢ to 30¢; new peas, 70¢ per peck; new potatoes, 40¢ per peck; lettuce, 5 to 10¢ bunch; celery, 8¢ to 10¢ bunch; cucumbers, 2¢ to 8¢; eggplants, 15¢ to 25¢; mushrooms, 60¢ to 70¢ per pound; cauliflower, 20¢ to 25¢ a head.
